

Answer key

1. a) The process by which a living being produces a new individual of its own kind is called reproduction.
- b) The process by which a seed produces a seedling or a baby plant is called germination.
- c) The conditions required for a seed to germinate are :
 - air
 - water
 - sunlight.